PAYMENT OF THE 2014 MEMBERSHIP FEE

ERA-EDTA members are the most important part of our growing Society: we would therefore like to thank all the ERA-EDTA members who actively contribute to all many and very successful activities of our Society, by regularly paying their membership fee: ERA-EDTA is constantly striving for excellence in education, as well as science, by directly funding many initiatives, as well as grants, especially for young people and for those who live in developing countries. With the help of all its active members this goal can continue to be as successful as it has been up to now.

NEWS FROM THE ERA-EDTA COUNCIL

ERA-EDTA Councillors met last October (from the 13th to the 15th), also thanks to the warm hospitality of Prof. Christoph Wanner (Chairman of the ERA-EDTA Registry) who welcomed his colleagues and friends, in the charming Bavarian town of Würzburg (Germany) for the traditional ERA-EDTA Autumn council meeting. Important decisions concerning the life of the Society were taken, including offering important benefits and advantages for young professionals also thanks to the important suggestions of the Young Nephrology Platform (YNP) Board.
