The ERA-EDTA 2015 congress app is now available!

The ERA-EDTA 2015 congress app is now available! A useful guide to the event, the app has been developed to give you convenient access to essential information about ERA-EDTA 2015. Whenever and wherever you need it, both before and during the congress, the app provides details about the scientific programme, speaker listings, and symposium and congress centre information. Additionally, you can request scientific E-materials through the app's simple order service and plan out your schedule at the congress.

We "ASQ" for your help for young nephrologists living in developing countries

The 52nd ERA-EDTA Congress in London is officially open! We do hope that the congress meets all delegates' needs regarding personal updating in the field of Nephrology. ERA-EDTA has created an electronic congress feedback questionnaire (MailScanner has detected a possible fraud attempt from "newslettereraedta.era-edta.org" <https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/52ERAEDTA>) aimed at collecting impressions, suggestions and remarks related to this event. We warmly invite all registered delegates to complete this questionnaire that should take no more than 3 minutes time to answer.
